UE 143: CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
Tuesdays, 3:30 to 4:50 p.m., 109 Capen Hall
Barbara Bono, Professor of English
Academic Director of the Civic Engagement Academy
Registration #: 16185

(IN THIS SEMINAR)
Use small groups to research and implement a service project with an emphasis on the City of Buffalo.
Articulate the relationships between the community, the agency and your own research-service role.
Explore the roles and responsibilities of individual citizens as members and leaders of communities in the change process.

UE 145: GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES
Thursdays, 3:30 to 4:50 p.m., 110 Capen Hall
Colleen Culleton, Professor of Romance Languages & Literatures
Academic Director of the Global Perspectives Academy
Registration #: 16003

(IN THIS SEMINAR)
Explore a variety of possibilities for active engagement in today’s world.
Enhance your understanding of what “Globalization” means for different people and different cultures.
Develop greater skills in critical thinking, research, writing and presentation.

UE 147: RESEARCH EXPLORATION
Wednesdays, 3:00 to 4:20 p.m., 110 Capen Hall
Peter Horvath, Professor of Nutrition and Excercise Science
The Academic Director of Research Exploration Academy
Registration #: 12018

(IN THIS SEMINAR)
Learn how research is conducted & various research opportunities at UB.
Understand the societal, political and ethical issues surrounding research.
Develop and carry out a group research project.
Write a research proposal or application for research funding.

UE 149: ENTREPRENEURSHIP
Thursdays, 3:30 to 4:50 p.m., 109 Capen Hall
Bob Neubert, Professor in the School of Management
Academic Director of the Entrepreneurship Academy
Registration #: 19956

(IN THIS SEMINAR)
Learn the process of starting a new venture.
Formulate strategies to turn your idea into reality.
Prepare and present a “business plan” in teams.

UE 150: SUSTAINABILITY
Mondays, 2:00 to 3:20 p.m., 110 Capen Hall
Kenneth Shockley, Professor of Philosophy
Academic Director of the Sustainability Academy
Registration #: 22580

(IN THIS SEMINAR)
Participate in group projects designed to encourage or enhance sustainable practices in local organizations and UB.
Develop greater skills in writing, research, critical thinking, analysis, and presentation.
Explore methods for integrating sustainability into our lives.

The Academies, 17 Norton Hall, University at Buffalo, Buffalo, NY 14260
716.645.8177 | Email: academy@buffalo.edu | academies.buffalo.edu