

Discovery Week

Monday, April 17

Navigating Conflict in a Changing World: How to Maintain Calm in the Face of Opposition

Hosted by the Academies and facilitated by Bobbie Dillon—mediator, conflict coach and trainer.
12–1 p.m. • 17 Norton Hall

This practical workshop will provide a clearer understanding of why it is so difficult to remain in a reasoning state when faced with opposition, tips for regaining a sense of control, and techniques for responding to and managing conflict when it arises.

Lunch provided. Advanced registration encouraged at academy@buffalo.edu.

Beyond Your Bachelor's—Graduate School Opportunities in UB's College of Arts and Sciences

10–11 a.m. • 732 Clemens Hall

Join us for a conversation about how to prepare for graduate school. We will discuss standardized tests, letters of recommendation, personal statements and steps you should take to prepare for graduate school. We will focus on programs in the College of Arts and Sciences, we can also answer general questions about applying to graduate school.

Preparing to Complete the UB Curriculum Capstone

2–3:15 p.m. • 200G Baldy Hall

Are you a transfer student with questions about UB Curriculum requirements? If so, this session is for you! UB Curriculum staff will provide information about Pathways completion and enrolling in the Capstone. Capstone instructors will describe the structure and assignments of UBC 399. You will learn about the Capstone ePortfolio and gain valuable information about gathering materials to complete the ePortfolio before you are even enrolled in the course. Bring a Wi-Fi enabled device and Capstone instructors can help you get started by creating your Capstone ePortfolio.

Tuesday, April 18

Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences Demystified

11:30 a.m.–12:20 p.m. • 12 Capen Hall

Thinking of a career in health care, but undecided about which field? Interested in science and research and want to explore more options? Learn about the opportunities in pharmacy and pharmaceutical sciences from one of the top 25 ranked schools in the nation, right here at UB.

Celebrating the Scholarship and Achievements of Undergraduate Women Across the Disciplines

12–1:30 p.m. • 17 Norton Hall

A collaborative session featuring the Gender Institute—a cross-disciplinary research center that promotes research and teaching related to women, gender and sexuality. This session will celebrate the achievements of undergraduate women in all disciplines by recognizing their scholarship and contributions to our knowledge community.

Lunch provided. Advanced registration encouraged at academy@buffalo.edu.

My Big Idea Pitch Contest

1:30–2:30 p.m. • The Silverman Library in Capen Hall, third floor

Three students will be chosen to pitch their ideas to a panel of UB celebrity judges for a chance to win $500 and lunch with the provost.

Graduate School Drop-In Hours, College of Arts and Sciences

2–4 p.m. • CAS Advising, 275 Park Hall

One-on-one informal advising for students who have questions about graduate school.

Global Learning: Connecting International Travel with Academic and Career Goals

3–4 p.m. • 17 Norton Hall

This interactive workshop will provide opportunities for students to discuss specific questions and career interests. Peace Corps will be discussed along with other graduate and postgraduate opportunities.

Wednesday, April 19

Scholarship in the Arts

12–1 p.m. • 17 Norton Hall

How do you present your scholarship and research without a poster? Come to this stimulating session to see undergraduate scholars in the arts present their exciting work in dynamic and unexpected ways.

Lunch provided. Advanced registration encouraged at academy@buffalo.edu.

Alternative Break Student Presentations

3–4:30 p.m. • Student Engagement Learning Lab

This presentation will discuss highlights of student service experiences in local, national and international communities. Join us to learn about environmental conservation in the wetlands, refugee resettlement in Georgia and poverty fighting in Virginia, among other topics.

Social Justice and Climate Justice in Architecture and Planning

3–4 p.m. • 17 Norton Hall

Learn how the disciplines of architecture and planning engage issues of social justice and climate justice through research and practice. Undergraduates from all majors are welcome.

Thursday, April 20

Celebration of Student Academic Excellence

1–3 p.m. • Center for the Arts

Outstanding research, scholarship and creativity poster displays.

Celebration Ceremony

3:30–4:45 p.m. • Center for the Arts

Bluewolf Workshop—Talent Acquisition

5:30 p.m. • Blackstone LaunchPad, 220 Student Union

How do you attract, retain and build a company culture? Come to this workshop to learn about the power of employee engagement, why gender diversity is key to the future success of businesses, and how to acquire talented individuals to help grow your business. All interested in starting a business are welcome.

Friday, April 21

Mythologies in the Modern World

12–9 p.m. • 310 Capen Hall

How has mythology shaped the past, how does it continue to evolve, and how may mythologies be constructed in the future? We are interested in the broadest interpretation of the idea of mythology, ranging from the variety of ancient stories from Gilgamesh to the Brothers Grimm; to reinterpretations of Shakespeare and modern Hollywood; and to the modern world of filmmaking and new media. Refreshments provided.

Student Research in Addiction Sciences Open House

3–5 p.m. • RIA is located on the Downtown Campus at 1021 Main Street, Buffalo, NY 14203

The Research Institute on Addiction (RIA) will highlight undergraduate and graduate researchers conducting addiction sciences. Students will provide poster presentations of their research and/or research activities to stimulate conversation about the ongoing discovery in addiction sciences at UB.

Light refreshments will be served. For more information visit buffalo.edu/ria/educ_training/open_house.

Female Founder Friday

4 p.m. • Blackstone LaunchPad, 220 Student Union

Listen to a successful female entrepreneur share her story and tips for success. This session will feature Joy Kuebler, a landscape architect, whose focus is improving quality of life through the surrounding environment.